My name is Joanna Charara. My daughter Mariam began her first year at Sacred Heart School this 2015.2016 school year. Mariam is in the 5th grade. I can't even explain in words how amazing this school community is. Mariam is loving, smart, responsible, kind, and extremely shy. Her public school was not the right fit for her. I had always heard great things about Sacred Heart. Once we completed our tour and met the teachers Mariam and I were sold.

Sacred Heart has surpassed our expectations. Mariam started playing soccer in August followed by basketball, cheerleading, softball and futsal. The CYO organization is excellent and has kept her active throughout the year. It gave her a nice balance with her academics and was a great way to make new friends and build self-confidence. The coaches are amazing. The parents are very welcoming, kind, and helpful. I have bonded with moms like I have known them for years.

As a parent working in the school system for the past 16 years I was very happy to see the smaller class size of only 20 in her class. The teaching staff in middle school is the best I have ever seen. The academic expectations are high and the curriculum is rigorous. Mariam is on the academic honor roll. She works hard for her grades. Her teachers are exceptional. The school communication is excellent and the "green envelope" tells you almost everything you need to know.

My daughter is 10 and I can with all honesty say that the tuition is the best money my husband and I have ever spent. Sacred Heart has been the perfect fit and we are looking forward to the next 3 years.

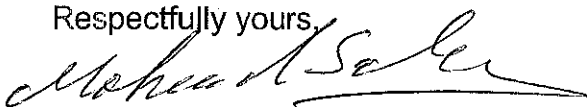

Dear Mrs. Lambrecht,

Sending our son Hazma to Sacred Heart Catholic School was an easy decision to make. Like all parents my wife and I wanted the best for Hazma. Early in his life he was met with some hard fought challenges. I am writing this letter to commend the teachers and staff at Sacred Heart for their expertise, professionalism and dedication. We greatly appreciate the ways in which his teachers responded positively to our concerns. They devoted a great amount of personal effort and interest in his academic and personal development, and we owe a debt of gratitude to Sacred Heart for playing a significant role in our son's spiritual development. Overall, Sacred Heart Catholic School provided the much needed stepping stone for our son. The school became his refuge, a warm and encouraging place where he was able to grow and gain confidence.

From day one we knew that with the school's faith based curriculum and impeccable reputation for academics Hazma would learn to embrace and uphold God centered principles. We are also very proud of his leadership and social skills. He understands the importance of self-respect and respect for others. He is a responsible young man that consistently demonstrates a strong moral compass in all that he does. From the earliest I can remember he has enjoyed helping others, and we believe that Hazma's gift of servitude and generosity was nurtured while at Sacred Heart. Furthermore, with its small classroom sizes teachers were able to inspire students to reach beyond their limitations. He is very excited about life after high school. He enjoys the challenge of solving problems and he finds great pleasure in helping those who cannot help themselves. He plans to pursue a career in public service. We will forever be grateful for finding a school that reinforced our values and belief about education and personal responsibility.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mrs. Lambrecht,

I am writing to express what Sacred Heart Catholic School means to our family. We were drawn to Sacred Heart because we wanted our daughter, Arwa Hamza, to be in an environment where she could develop both academically and spiritually. I would like to first start by commending her teachers. Our daughter would not have performed as well as she did without their help. We will forever be grateful for their expertise and dedicated approach toward superior teaching methods. Arwa's work ethic and thirst for knowledge are a direct result of the care and attention to detail they gave to her each and every day.

Arwa is also a thoughtful and conscientious leader who doesn't mind doing things behind the scenes. She strives to make a strong impact on whatever project she finds herself working on. She loves challenges. From early on we notice how much of an impact the school's mission and philosophy on academics has made on our daughter. Since her freshman year she's had the attitude that the more prepared she is for something, the more inquisitive she becomes. I am certain that Sacred Heart's small classroom sizes helped nurture her love for learning and innate curiosities. To say that she welcomes a challenge is an understatement. She can spend hours reading about things that perplex her, and I credit her teachers for helping her develop such a disciplined, inquisitive spirit.

I am so honored to have watched her grow into an extraordinary young lady. Part of a young person's transition into adulthood is learning to embrace difficult situations. I see a daughter who seizes opportunities, someone who embraces anxious feelings and use it as fuel for growth. I am very confident that because of her time spent at Sacred Heart she will be able to face any challenge that college has to offer.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mrs. Lambrecht,

The Sacred Heart community has been dear to our hearts since we sent our oldest child to first grade here in 2007. Both of our children have received a well-rounded, disciplined education from teachers with enthusiasm and compassion. From the faculty and staff, to the CYO program, the atmosphere here at Sacred Heart is truly something special. The friendships we have made with other Sacred Heart families are priceless, and will last a lifetime. We are sad that our youngest will be graduating this coming Spring and heading off to high school. Please accept this school donation on our behalf. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Jason & Katie Hayburn

Dear Mrs. Lambrecht:

It is with deep gratitude that we write you and your staff this letter. On May 14, our daughter, Sara Zawacki (Sacred Heart Class of 2007), will graduate Valedictorian for the University of Detroit Mercy Class of 2016. To be selected Valedictorian, a student must demonstrate high academic excellence, University involvement, service, and leadership; all attributes Sara acquired as an elementary student at Sacred Heart. We believe that her experience in the elementary and middle school at Sacred Heart School played a pivotal role in preparing Sara for future educational demands at Marian High School and the University of Detroit School of Nursing, where she maintained a GPA of 3.98.

The Sacred Heart staff continues to be a gift to the families of this community, preparing students through faith formation, leadership building, teaching the importance of giving back to the community, and setting high academic standards. Seldom do these teachers see the result of the work that they do on a daily basis. As our daughter Sara reads her speech as Valedictorian on May 14, and continues on to begin her nursing career, please know that her success is your success. She has achieved because of all of you and Sacred Heart School.

Our deepest gratitude,

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mualem
